After freshening up, embark on an immersive historical Saigon city tour. Discover the powerful War Remnants Museum, showcasing authentic Vietnam War artifacts and photography. Next, explore the historic Reunification Palace (Independence Palace), a symbol of Vietnam's modernist architecture and pivotal location of the Vietnam War's conclusion in 1975. Your afternoon walking tour through downtown Saigon includes iconic French colonial landmarks: the magnificent Saigon Opera House, the historic Hotel de Ville (HCMC City Hall), the 19th-century Notre Dame Cathedral Basilica, and the architectural gem of Saigon Central Post Office. Experience local river life with a sampan ride through Thoi Son canal, visit traditional honey farms, taste fresh honey tea, and watch artisanal coconut candy making. Savor authentic Mekong Delta cuisine at a riverside restaurant. In the afternoon, cycle through Tan Thach village, connecting with local Vietnamese culture and daily Mekong life. Optional hammock relaxation available. Return to Ho Chi Minh City in late afternoon.
